LOUISA PUTS UP $100,000 AND SITE FOR STATE NORMAL

Conditions Met and Our Application is in Hands of the Commission.

Louisa has met the requirements of the law and the construction put upon it by the commission for the location of the Eastern Kentucky Normal School. These conditions are $100,000 donation and a suitable and acceptable site.

A delegation of 11 Louisa men went to Lexington and appeared before the commission on Wednesday, presenting Louisa's claims.

The commission has fixed June 16 to meet in Louisville at which time they expect to make either a final decision or arrange to visit the various applicant towns. It seems that they have been and probably yet are inclined to make the location without seeing the towns. Louisa extended a pressing invitation to visit here.

Five cities and towns presented their claims at Lexington. They were Paintsville, Louisa, Ashland, West Liberty and Morehead. Each place was given one hour in which to present its case. There was a good deal of good natured rivalry and friendly thrusts during the hearing and the entire five hours proved to be quite interesting.

Paintsville's claims were presented by Fred A. Vaughan, W. B. Ward and Mrs. H. F. Roberts.

Ashland J. W. M. Stewart, Robt. Caldwell, E. H. Gartrell and B. F. Forsey.

Louisa, Col. Jay H. Northup, F. H. Yates, Dr. T. D. Burgess and M. F. Conley.

West Liberty, L. A. Redwine, Walter Gardner, and Morgan County Superintendent of Schools and the County Farm Agent.

Morehead Sam Bradley, S. S. Cassidy and the Christian church pastor. Many of the delegates expressed some doubt as to all of these towns having qualified, but there is no doubt about Louisa and Ashland having met the conditions. Paintsville announced that they hoped to be able to offer the Jno. C. C. Mayo College property later, but this was given only as a possibility. Their donations total about $80,000. Ashland and Catlettsburg offered a site off of the Gartrell estate near Cliffledge. Morehead offered the Christian school property but no money. They estimate the three frame buildings and one brick structure, with furnishings, to be worth $100,000 or more. West Liberty offered $75,000 and the use of a high school building and dormitory.

The hearing was public and a large crowd was present.

The Louisa delegates who went to Lexington were Col. Jay H. Northup, F. H. Yates, Dr. T. D. Burgess, J. H. Woods, H. H. Queen, W. E. Queen, Augustus Snyder, W. H. Adams, G. R. Vinson, E. E. Shannon and M. F. Conley.

Louisa's Successful Drive.

The biggest thing that Louisa and Lawrence county has ever done was accomplished last Monday and Tuesday, when $100,000 was raised for the donation to the Eastern Kentucky Normal School and ample land procured for a site.

All this was done within 18 hours. No subscriptions were taken until Monday morning of this week.

The plan which solved the big problem was suggested by Mr. F. H. Yates and it worked out admirably. He secured options on Phillip Preece and E. E. Shannon, and Col. Northup donated 10 acres of adjacent land. The plan was based upon lot sales and it worked like a charm. Nearly everybody who is able, and who could be seen, joined heartily in the scheme. There are only a few laggards.

Soliciting committees went out Monday morning and when a public meeting in the court house was called to order at 10 o'clock the committees had raised $121,000. The canvass was continued until the entire amount needed was raised. The soliciting committees were F. H. Yates, Dr. T. D. Burgess, Dr. W. H. Wray, Aug. Snyder, H. H. Queen, W. E. Queen, W. H. Adams, M. F. Conley and Jas. H. Woods.

In addition to his land donation Col. Jay H. Northup subscribed $5000. Phillip Preece is the largest subscriber to the plan, his amount being $25,000. F. H. Yates takes $5,000.

A total of 143 persons subscribed. The meeting in the court house was presided over by F. H. Yates, who stated clearly the details of the plan. Short talks were made by several persons and there was great enthusiasm. Everybody saw the feasibility of the plan proposed by Mr. Yates and he is being congratulated on all sides for the resourcefulness shown in solving this big problem. Numbers of citizens joined heartily in the work. We would like to mention all who helped, and probably shall publish the list of subscribers a little later.

Arrangements are being made to provide temporary quarters for the Eastern Kentucky Normal and offer them at once to the commission.

State Police Member Killed in Accident

Private Howard A. Deem, of the state police force was killed, Mrs. R. H. Stine, of Welch, was dangerously hurt and James Hall and Miss Maggie Hatfield, of Matewan, were more or less painfully injured when on last Saturday about six in the evening an automobile in which they were being driven to Matewan went over an almost perpendicular declivity on the Matewan road about two miles east of Williamson, and directly opposite Leckieville.

The car, a new Maxwell was driven by H. F. Hope its owner, who is a taxi driver of Matewan. Private Deem occupied the front seat with him and Mr. Hall and the two ladies sat on the rear seat.

As the machine rounded the curve opposite Leckieville it left the road, ran down the hillside a short distance then rolled over and over a distance of more than 100 feet and did not stop till it struck the Norfolk & Western railway track. Only two of the five—Officer Deem and Mrs. Stine—were carried the entire distance by the machine.

Private Deem sustained fractures of the skull, and died a few minutes after reaching the track.

He was 24 years of age and unmarried. He enlisted March 3, 1921. His father is night watchman for the Stone Mountain Coal Co., and stays at Matewan. His mother lives at Parsons, W. Va.

He was sent here Saturday to join Private Swift, Inscore and Dye in making a moonshine raid which they carried out. He reported at 4:30, and was under orders to take train No. 16 for Matewan. For some reason he chose to join the automobile party, with tragic ending.—Williamson News

D. BROWN SAILS FOR RUSSIA

A letter from Dave Brown which was written in New York last Sunday says he will sail June 10 on the steamship New York on the Black Sea line for Constantinople. He expects to reach there in eighteen or twenty days and at that point get permit to travel on to Odessa which will require two days more.

He was delayed in New York getting the passports and finds that to get in and out of Russia now is a much more difficult proposition than when he left there thirty-eight years ago. While waiting in New York he received a letter stating that eight more of his near relatives had passed away on account of starvation, his brother, sister, brother-in-law and their children. They had not had a meal for days and no bread in their houses for weeks.

Mr. Brown lived in Louisa some years ago and moved from here to Williamson where he is a prosperous merchant.

ASHLAND OUT OF CONTEST FOR STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

Terms Indicated by Chairman Can Not Be Met By That City.

Just before going to press we learn by wire that Ashland and Catlettsburg have withdrawn from the contest for the State Normal School.

This action came as the result of the report made to the Chamber of Commerce by its committee that went to Lexington Wednesday. It was due to the attitude of the commission on two points, as indicated in the proceedings and announcements.

One point is that the commission will not visit the applicant cities. The other is in regard to putting at the disposal of the State by next September a building or buildings in which to start the school then. Ashland can not construct new buildings in time, they say.

Miss Lucile McClure Graduates at Berea

The many friends of Miss Lucile McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McClure of Torchlight, will be interested in knowing that she is a member of this year's graduating class in the Normal department of Berea College. She is one of our county's best teachers and is popular here where she attended school.

Next week is commencement week there. A program covering the entire day will be given on Wednesday, the main address to be made by Dr. Frederick F. Shannon of Chicago. The Berea Citizen has the following in regard to Dr. Shannon: "He is pastor of Central Church Chicago, is successor to Dr. Gunsaulus who, until his death, was one of the greatest preachers in America. Dr. Shannon is not among strangers when he comes back to Kentucky for he, himself, came from Eastern Kentucky, and knows it as well as any living man. He is not a stranger to West Virginia as he was pastor in Logan, W. Va., for a number of years. Dr. Shannon is an author of note, as well as an eminent clergyman. You should hear him on commencement day at 11:30 a. m."

A FISHING PARTY.

A fishing party went to Gallup early on Tuesday morning of this week to spend the day. They took lunch which was spread on the lawn at J. H. McClure's. How many fish did they catch? We will tell you later. Before leaving they took orders for a large amount of fish.

In the evening they had a chance to start back on a gasoline boat which was chartered by Dr. Wray, who had been up to see a patient. Feeling sure the train would be late (which it wasn't) they came on the boat. Along about Walbridge the gasoline gave out so the "happy picnic party" proceeded to walk to town, a distance of three miles, reaching here about 10 p. m.

In the fifteen hours two fish were caught, each member of the party claiming the honor. Those who ordered fish were at the depot to meet the train and were greatly disappointed when neither the fish nor the parties arrived. In spite of all these things the outing was very much enjoyed so they say. It was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander of Huntington, the others being Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Atkins and son Jack, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Justice and sons Earl and Arthur, Mrs. W. J. Heeter and Mrs. D. C. Spencer.

Vinson Memorial Dedicated Sunday

The dedication of Vinson Memorial church on a spot of the Old Homestead at West Moreland, W. Va., was a ceremonial as devout in its simplicity and neighborliness as it was in the solemn consecration of the edifice itself to the Lord for the use of those who would serve Him, says the Huntington Herald Dispatch.

The house, shapely without and finely adorned within stands just between the city and the country. As far as the surroundings tell, it might be rural or it might be urban.

This occasion called from far and wide hundreds who, by reason of ties of blood or friendly associations, have occasion fondly to remember the man and woman whose lives are commemorated in the edifice.

The formal devotions which transferred Vinson Memorial church to the realm of things sacred, were impressive and beautiful, and in full measure fitting the illustrious names it was intended to perpetuate. Outwardly the affair took on the aspect of a family reunion. There was a feast magnificently spread, and the hundreds present were treated with the traditional hospitality which still clings to the ancient homestead in the orchard and in its maze of rose bushes and flower beds. The crowd, which numbered many hundreds ranged in ages all the way from men and women in the eighties, to infants in arms. Handshakings, familiar greetings and delighted expressions, marked the reunion feature, and city folk got a most favorable impression of country folk, while country folk found that city folk can be just as nice as anybody else.

From the beginning of the dedicatory service early in the forenoon until the final scene at mid-afternoon, the main body of the new church was crowded with people intent upon the ceremonies.

A panel on the front of the church facing the highway, bears this simple inscription: "In Memory of S. S. and Mary Vinson."

The daughters and sons of Mr. and Mrs. Vinson are Mrs. James A. Hughes, Mrs. Donald Clark, E. H. and Lindsey Vinson, all of Huntington. The church is a gift from them to the Christian church.

Relatives who went from Louisa were Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Vinson, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Vinson, Jim Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Vinson and Miss Helen Vinson, Mr. and Mrs. Milt Vinson and son Robert, Mr. and Mrs. James Vinson and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Atkinson, Mrs. V. Peters and Miss Virginia Hager.

Dr. Blair's Funeral Held at Morehead

The body of Dr. Frederick K. Blair, 32, today rests beneath the flow covered sod in the family bury ground at Morehead. The funeral burial Thursday by the Blue L the Knights Templar, the Eastern and the American Legion will be remembered as one of the grand testimonials to the worth of a man that Eastern Kentucky has seen.

Dr. Blair, who was connected with the Ashland General Hospital, far ear, nose and throat specialist, who was popularly known by his surnames in this section, died in a bi-Tuesday night from heart disease after having suffered since he came out of years' service in France during the war and had known for several weeks that he could not recover.

The body was taken to Morehead and lay in state at the home of Harlan Blair, a cousin. Morehead was doctor Blair's home and the scene of his practice after he was graduated from a medical school. His townspeople turned out en masse to pay their last respects. No funeral in recent years has drawn so many people.

The funeral took place at the Blair home. A quartet sang three numbers after which there was a scripture reading by the Rev. Mr. Irvin, pastor of the Christian church of Morehead. Then the Rev. Mr. Paul S. Powell, pastor of Dr. Blair's church, the First Methodist Episcopal, South, of Ashland, read a sketch of the young physician's life and work and offered prayer. He was followed by the Rev. Dr. D. W. Scott, pastor of the First Christian church of Ashland who preached the funeral sermon.

The full Masonic ritual was carried out at the grave. The Clarence Post, American Legion, had sent its firing squad under command of Capt. John Millis. The squad fired at salute over the grave and then the buglers sounded taps.

Dr. A. L. Blair and Mrs. Blair, parents of the dead young man; Mrs. Fred K. Blair, the widow, and F. M. Blair, an uncle, all of Ashland, came to this city after the burial. A score or more of Ashland friends attended the funeral and burial. Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Garrod of Louisa also attended.—Ashland Independent.

Studebaker

PRECISION plays an important part in the manufacture of the Special-Six. It is largely responsible for the dependable service that has singled out the Special-Six as an incomparable value.

Six hundred and eighty inspectors safeguard precision in the Studebaker factories. They literally inspect every part that goes into every car—and every operation on every part. Before cars are passed for delivery 9,500 inspections are made.

In the Special-Six there are 1,120 mechanical operations to the accuracy of one-thousandth of an inch, 360 to one-half-thousandth.

As to the car's performance, a brief experience will reveal its superiority far more convincingly than we could tell it.

Studebaker cars make friends quickly, because they give most for the money. And they invariably keep these friends, because of the universal satisfaction they give in fine performance, economy and service.

A WOMAN'S BACK

THE ADVICE OF THIS LOUISA WOMAN IS OF CERTAIN VALUE.

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains.

Off times 'tis the kidneys' fault.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.

Many Louisa women know this. Read what one has to say about it:

Mrs. M. J. Dunagan, Lock Ave., says: "It's been about two years since I treated with Doan's Kidney Pills and I was so well pleased with the results that I can recommend them to others. At that time my back ached and there was a constant weakness through the center of my back. I had a dizzy feeling come over me every now and then, too. My kidneys weren't acting regularly and, in many ways, showed signs of disorder. I got to hear about Doan's Kidney Pills and used two boxes. They rid me of my trouble entirely."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Dunagan had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

6 cylinders—50 horsepower—$1065

If you spend more than $1000 for a motor car you are entitled to a six of full fifty horsepower. If you accept fewer cylinders or less horsepower per dollar of investment, you have only yourself to blame.

Such is the new standard of automobile value—established by the Jewett and endorsed by a volume of public opinion which has broken every sales record of this factory. See the Jewett today and you will have more respect for your pocketbook.

How Mountaineer Inspired Faulkner's Famed Tune, "The Arkansas Traveler."

Colonel Sandy Faulkner, the original "Arkansas Traveler," was born in Georgetown, Scott county, Ky., March 3, 1808. He came to Arkansas in 1829 and settled in Chicot county on the Mississippi river as a cotton planter. In 1839 Col. Faulkner with his father the late Nicholas Faulkner a Virginian by birth, took up his residence in Little Rock where he died August 4, 1874, at the age of 71 years.

It is well known throughout the southwest that Colonel Faulkner was the original personator of the "Arkansas Traveler;" it was his pride to be known as such. The story, it is said, was founded on a little incident which occurred in the campaign of 1840, when he made the tour of the state in company with Hon. A. H. Sevier, Governor of Tennessee. One day in the Boston mountains the party approached a squatter for information of the route, and Colonel "Sandy" was made spokesman for the company, and it was upon his witty responses the tune and story were founded. On the return to Little Rock a grand banquet was given in the famous "bar room," which used to stand near the Anthony house, and Colonel "Sandy" was called upon to play the tune and tell the story. Afterward it grew in popularity. When he subsequently went to New Orleans, the fame of the "Arkansas Traveler" had gone ahead of him, and at a banquet, amid clinking glasses and sparkling toasts, he was handed a violin by the then governor of Louisiana and requested to favor them with the favorite Arkansas tune. At the old St. Charles hotel a special room was devoted to his use, wearing in gilt letters over the door:

"Arkansas Traveler."

Traveler—Hailo, stranger.
Squatter—Hailo, yourself.
T.—Can I get to stay all night with you?

S.—No, sir; you can't get to—
T.—Have you any spirits here?
S.—Lots o' em; Sal saw one last night by that old holler gum, and it nearly skeered her to death.

T.—You mistake my meaning. Have you any liquor?

S.—Had some yesterday; but Ole Bose he got in and lapped all of it out'n the pot.

T.—You don't understand. I don't mean pot liquor. I'm wet and cold and want some whiskey. Have you got any?

S.—Oh yes; I drank the last this morning.

T.—I'm hungry; haven't had a thing since morning; can't you give me something to eat?

S.—Hain't a durned thing in the house. Not a mouthful uv meat nor a dust of meal here.

T.—Well, can't you give my horse something?

S.—Got nothin' to feed him on.

T.—How far is it to the next house?

S.—Stranger, I don't know; I've never been there.

T.—Well, do you know who lives here?

S.—I do.

T.—As I am so bold, then, what might your name be?

S.—It might be Dick, and it might be Tom; but it lacks right smart uv it.

T.—Sir, will you tell me where this road runs to?

S.—It's never been anywhar since I've lived here; it's always thar when I get up in the mornin'.

T.—Well, how far is it to where it forks?

S.—It don't fork at all, but it splits up like the devil.

T.—As I am not likely to get to any other house tonight, can't you let me sleep in yours; and will tie my horse to a tree and do without anything to eat or drink?

S.—My house leaks. Thar's only one dry spot in it, and me and Sal sleeps on it. And that thar tree is the ole woman's persimmon; you can't tie to it, cause she don't want 'em shuk off. She 'lows to make beer out'n 'um.

T.—Why don't you finish covering your house and stop the leaks?

S.—It's been raining all day.

T.—Well, why don't you do it in dry weather?

S.—It don't leak then.

T.—As there seems to be nothing alive about your place but children, how do you do, anyhow?

for to get the table.
S.—Whar's big butch, little butch, ole case, cob-handle, granny's knife and the one I handled yesterday? Thar's enough to sat any gentleman's table, without you've lost um. Durn me, stranger, ef you can't stay as long as you please, and I'll give you plenty to eat and to drink. Will you have coffee for supper?

T.—Yes, sir.
S.—I'll be hanged if you do tho, we don't have nothin' that way here, but Grub Hyson, and I reckon it's mighty good with sweetnin'. Play away stranger; you kin sleep on the dry spot to-night.

T.—(After about two hours' fiddling.) My friend, can't you tell me about the road I'm to travel tomorrow?

S.—Tomorrow! Stranger you won't get out'n these diggins for six weeks. But when it gits so you kin start, you see that big sloo over thar? Well, you have to git crost that, then you take the road up the bank, and in about a mile you'll come to a two-acre-and-a-half corn patch. The corn's mighty in the weeds but you needn't mind that, just ried on. About a mile and a half or two miles from that you'll come to the damnest swamp you ever struck in all your travels; it's boggy enuff to mire a saddle-blanket. Thar's a fust-rate road about six feet under thar.

T.—How am I to get at it?

S.—You can't git at it nary time, 'till the weather stiffens down sum. Well about a mile beyant, you come to a place whar thar's no roads. You can take the right hand if you want to; you'll foller it a mile or so, and then you'll find it's run out; you'll then have to come back and try the left; when you git about two miles on that you may know you're wrong fur they ain't any road thar. You'll then think you're mighty lucky ef you can find the way back to my house, whar you kin cum an play on that chune as long as you please.

Pikeville Couple Weds in Versailles

Frankfort, Ky., June 5.—Mrs. Sarah Thornsberry, of Pikeville last Wednesday came to Frankfort to see the Assistant Secretary of State E. E. Trivette, who was ill, had proper care. On Thursday she and Mr. Trivette went to Versailles. That evening Mr. and Mrs. Trivette returned to Frankfort.

An effort was made to keep the marriage a secret from all but a few friends. Word of the marriage, however, today got out here and Mr. Trivette was prevailed upon to tell about it.

The romance started in Pikeville when Mr. Trivette was county judge of Pike county. Both had been married before. When Mr. Trivette came to Frankfort a month ago to take the position of assistant secretary of State after R. Lee Stewart had resigned Mrs. Thornsberry remained in Pikeville.

A week ago, however, Mr. Trivette became ill. He went to a Louisville sanitarium for a few days. Mrs. Thornsberry heard that he was ill. Telling relatives in Pikeville that she was going to Mingo, W. Va., to visit a brother, who is sheriff there, she came to Frankfort to see that Mr. Trivette had proper care. He returned from Louisville the same day she arrived here.

"I thought," said Mr. Trivette today, "that any woman who was interested enough in me to come all of that distance to see that I had proper care when I was sick was well worth keeping here, and that is all there is to it."

Both Mr. and Mrs. Trivette are of families prominent in Eastern Kentucky. He has been active in politics in Eastern Kentucky for twenty years, having been a member of the State Legislature for three terms and later postmaster at Pikeville and then county judge.

SUPERINTENDENT JORDAN ELECTED SECRETARY

Fifty county superintendents were in attendance at the Eastern State Normal School as guests of the latter from May 24 to May 26. They discussed important phases of the new school law and passed important resolutions.

The following officers were elected: President, Leonard E. Meese, of Pulaski county; secretary, Dock Jordan, of Lawrence county. It being necessary for Superintendent Jordan to leave before the meeting closed, Superintendent Oscar Falls, Boyle county, was chosen for the remainder of the session.—Kentucky School News.

"Is there anything you would like to do before I press the button, said the warden of Sing Sing to the murderer in the electric chair.

"Yes your honor," said the latter, "I would like to get up and give a lady my seat."

Coming and Going.

"A chicken," said the colored preacher, "am de mos' usefulest animal dat am made. Yo' c'n eat him befoh he am bohn an' aftah he am daid."

More of the Very Popular

In a Good Range of Wanted Shades

Fashion demands silk hosiery for every occasion—for dress, for street and for home wear. This requires an adequate supply, and calls for a proportionate variety of inexpensive grades. "Maid-O-Silk" hose are ideal for general service, for they have the in-bred quality that makes them equal to any reasonable demand for practical wear, and at the same time are attractive enough to be worn on most any occasion.

"Maid O' Silk" hose are fashioned from 12-strand silk and are designed to accentuate trim ankle lines. They resemble the more expensive fashioned grades, and are fully equal to them in point of service.

Louisa Men See Auto Races at Indianapolis

(Judge Billie Riffe and Ed W. Kirk are the ones referred to in this article.)

We left Louisa on the evening of May 28, by way of the N. & W. and were met at Kenova by Mr. T. F. Maloney, who took us to his hospitable home for the night. We left there at five o'clock next morning by way of Ironton and at Portsmouth we filled up on (gasoline) and then proceeded by way of Chillicothe, Hillsboro and at Fayetteville we visited Mr. Maloney's two sons who are in school there, and on through many other small towns to Cincinnati.

We here visited the zoo and other places of interest. Here at the Grand hotel, by pre-arrangement, we met the fourth man of our party, Mr. George Collins, a princely fellow. We left here at six o'clock next morning and drove to Hamilton, Ohio, about thirty miles and had breakfast and proceeded on our way to Indianapolis.

We drove through many fine small towns in Ohio, and over some fine roads. Mr. Maloney is a "bear cat" at the wheel, but soon after leaving Hamilton we had our first serious accident. We were clipping off something like forty-five miles per hour when a Ford suddenly ran up Mr. Maloney's sleeve and bit him on the arm; after this, when his attentive eye spied a Ford he would set his massive jaw, step on the accelerator and his noble old Franklin did the rest. We met and passed many Fords and cars of other makes, some of which were driven by men from the high grass.

We arrived at Indianapolis and the automobile race was on. There were something like one hundred and thirty-five thousand people there from almost every state and some from foreign countries. It was two and one-half miles around the track and the enclosure was reached by an underground crossing and this enclosure was packed full of cars of every kind and description and name, from the cheapest to the most elaborate. The distance of this most grueling contest was five hundred miles and the honor and purse went to the man who made this distance first. The average speed of the winner was ninety-four and one-half miles per hour.

After the races we drove about seventy-five miles to Frankfort, Indiana, and stopped for the night. From here we drove to Kankakee, Illinois, fifty miles south of Chicago, which is the home of Gov. Len Small, and here also is the largest insane asylum in the world. Here Mr. Collins visited his two sons who are in school in this beautiful town of some twelve thousand people. From here we turned south and drove through many towns in Illinois including Danville made famous by "Uncle" Joe Cannon and his forty-five degree stogie. We passed through many small and large towns in Indiana and stopped for the night at Bedford where the great Bedford sand stone is quarried, this was our record day's run, having covered in seven hours two hundred and fifty-one miles and we were some tired. We left here next morning and drove to West Baden where we saw, among other things, one of the finest and largest hotels in the world, here also is some of the "stinkingest" water we have ever scented. A half mile further on we saw French Lick, the home of Tom Taggart, a power in Indiana politics and a former United States Senator. We hurriedly took these places in and drove to Evansville and there crossed the Ohio river into Louisville arriving there at 11 o'clock a. m.

We went to the horse races that evening and next day and left there at six p. m. on Saturday and drove by way of Shelbyville, Frankfort, Versailles and to Lexington and there stopped for the night.

Sunday morning we started early and drove by way of Maysville and crossed the river and then followed the river through many small towns, Portsmouth, Ironton and crossed into Ashland and to the home of Mr. Maloney where we had an elegant supper prepared by Mr. Maloney's good wife and Miss Florence Deatley, people who certainly know how to entertain their friends.

We had driven over the Jackson highway, the Dixie highway, the National highway, the Lincoln highway, the Boon trail and other nationally known and magnificent highways. We also drove over some roads that reminded me of Lawrence county when I was county judge and our speedometer registered, for the trip, 1152 miles.

We saw much fine country and many things of interest to us of which we can not here speak for lack of space.

Mr. Maloney is a man of much travel and varied experience, wealth, and a fine host.

Mr. Collins is a man of great wealth, a gentleman of culture and refinement and between the two men there was nothing too good for us to enjoy and we think their greatest enjoyment was in showing us a good time, which we certainly had and enjoyed.

Thirteen members were present and an interesting program was carried out previously arranged by the president Mrs. Charley Rice.

While the number in attendance was disappointing, yet the several deeply felt prayers offered, Bible reading and songs were very helpful and spiritual. Refreshments were served by hostesses for the afternoon at the conclusion of program and before leaving for their homes the ladies asked to be taken for a "tour of inspection" over new improvements of Stewart flat and surrounding premises including "Rose Garden."

At the monthly meeting in April the afternoon was given over to our delegate, Mrs. Mary Horton, who had just returned from Charleston where she represented the society at the annual meeting. She brought to us many interesting facts and recommendations. All enjoyed her very excellent report.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried everything I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I am sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. E 85

A Good Reputation plus a Better Price—$10.90

THE new low mark of $10.90 for the 30 x 3½ size "Usco" created something of a sensation. Naturally, the first impulsive remark was on the "wonderful price."

Even more to the point are the comments of today.

People are getting more used to the $10.90 price—but the "Usco" value is still a cause for wonder.

With thousands of $10.90 "Usco's" running today, every locality has had a chance to check up on the surprising tire value.

Let all these "Usco" Tires now serving their owners so well remind you of this—

Whatever the price of "Usco," it has got to deliver big value because it has always done so.

Life Without Love.

Life without love is like a day without sunshine.

Roses bereft without sweet nature's perfume.

Love is the guide mark to those who are weary.

Of waiting and watching in darkness and gloom.

Love to the heart is like dew drops to violets.

Left on the dust-ridden roadside to die.

Love leads the way to our highest endeavors.

Lightens and lessens the pain in each sigh.

Life without love is like spring without flowers.

Brook streams that move not or starve.

Love creates efforts most worthy and noble.

Prompts us to live and resigns us to die.

—Arthur G. Lewis.

Is something wrong with the modern man and woman or is something wrong with the modern idea of marriage.

Marriage is constantly proving a failure. Perhaps it has always been so but of recent years people have no aversion to having their failures made public.

Many people blame the modern tendency toward divorce and recommend more stringent divorce laws.

But there are states where this has been tried and it seems to do more harm than good.

People resort to all sorts of ways of cheating the law in order to gain their ends.

And after all, knowing human nature as we do it is rather foolish to expect two people to live together with any semblance of happiness after they have reached the point where they cannot stand the sight of one another.

The thing they must do is to steer clear of that point. Each must look at marriage as an affair of give and take, a fifty-fifty proposition.

They must expect each other to be human beings with human feelings, not angels. And they must each have a head full of common sense.

Young people have doubtless shaken their heads wisely over those remarks many times before and then headed straight for the rocks they were so sure they would avoid, simply because they lack forbearance and understanding.

Each one acknowledges himself as a human being and on that ground excuses his faults for some reason difficult to explain, he always expects perfection in the other and feels cruelly cheated when he fails to find it.

June, besides being the month of roses is the month of brides. For-tunate indeed is the girl who can be married with the idea of matrimony which her grandmother had. It is appalling, especially in the larger towns and cities, the number of girls who frankly admit that they are taking a man purely on trial. If they do not like him, or if they do not like responsibilities which marriage brings them, they intend to seek the divorce courts for relief.

JEAN

All the laws in the world will not cure the divorce evil. Its cure lies far deeper than that in the training of the young people.

Children who are brought up in homes where divorces are common or where they are discussed as a matter of fact proceeding are not going to arrive at a marriageable age with very sacred feelings regarding matrimony.

The modern best seller is not an ideal sort of literature to put into the hands of young people.

As far as the views on marriage is concerned all the modern books might well be written by one man for they all seem to agree on this one point—that marriage is a good thing to write about because it gives a wide field for variety and change—change of wives and husbands.

For this reason, June is not the romantic month that it once was, for the June bride as a usual thing is not the dreaming, romantic girl that she used to be.

She is usually a pretty cold blooded proposition. She knows just what she wants to get out of marriage and if she doesn't get it the first time she will keep on trying till she does.

What makes a "best seller?" We are keeping up our faith in humanity by thinking the press agent and publicity man has more to do with it than the reading public.

If you have anything to sell, an ad in our Classified Column will sell it.

PIKEVILLE

Commencement.

At the graduating exercises of Pikeville College held in the Presbyterian church last Thursday, Rev. A. P. Higley of Cleveland, Ohio, was the speaker, after the graduates had given their program. There were seventeen in the class.

In the course of the presentation of diplomas Dr. Record said that a friend of the institution living in Philadelphia, recently gave the school $10,000 for the erection of a model girls cottage, in which special instruction in housekeeping would be observed.

Also, the Dr. W. C. Condit prize was awarded by Dr. Record to Miss Sylvia Trent of McAndrews, Ky. This prize was a solid gold watch, and was given for the highest class grade during the past three years. A second prize, the Margaret Record award, a twenty dollar gold piece, was presented to Miss Myrtle Hughes of Yeager, Ky.

The alumni banquet was served at the Derriana Thursday night.

The Alumni Association elected Jno. Hatcher, President; Mrs. Meri Fuller V-President and Frank Connolly, secretary and treasurer.

Every class was represented at the banquet except that of 1906 and 1921. Each member of the class of '21 except one, was away in college.

The alumni now numbers one hundred and four members, one hundred of whom are living.

At a meeting of the trustees it was voted to institute a campaign to raise $250,000 this year for building and campus.

The board made Miss Alice Record, dean of Pikeville college.

Two hours after commencement while the church was decorated one of the class, Miss Meri Donaldson, became the bride of Mr. W. R. Fuller, the other members of the class being the attendants with Miss Daryl Hatfield bridesmaid and Mr. Clarence Donaldson, brother of the bride, as best man.

High School.

The commencement exercises were held at the M. E. Church, South. The music was furnished by the orchestra which Prof. R. O. Dufour has trained during the year. The address was given by Dr. Byron W. King, President King's School of Oratory, Pittsburgh, Pa. The address was one of Dr. King's masterpieces of wit and oratory. A large audience filled the spacious auditorium of the church.

The graduates were: Misses Lena Darby, Mabel Picklesimer, Mae Ratliff, Lynchie McGuire and Homer Owens.

The baccalaureate sermon was preached at the First Baptist church by Rev. T. B. Ashley pastor of the M. E. Church.

Death Follows Accident.

John Mullins of Elkhorn City, sustained a broken leg Saturday and fatal injuries. Mr. Mullins, who was 32 years of age, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wash Mullins of Praise and was a member of the firm of Mullins and Jackson of Elkhorn City, and a brother of Mrs. Jackson.

While backing a truck near the company store at Elkhorn City, the car dashed down an embankment and crashed into a tree. Mr. Mullins was more severely injured than was at first apparent. He was taken to the hospital at Dante, Va., where he died Wednesday morning.

He is a brother of Hatten Mullins, traveling salesman and of Mrs. H. C. Marrs. He also leaves a number of other brothers and sisters, two sons ten and seven years of age respectively and his aged parents.

Aged Woman Dies.

Mrs. Sarah Smith, 82 years and one month old, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Bevin, wife of Albert Bevin, at Kimper, Ky., Friday, May 26. Mrs. Smith had been in failing health since Christmas and her death is said to have resulted from an attack of appendicitis which she suffered some time ago.

Mrs. Smith was the wife of the late Calahan Smith, a man of genuine worth and great popularity, who died at John creek eighteen years ago.

Mrs. Smith's maiden name was Phillips, her father was Jesse Phillips. While in the prime of life the deceased united with the Baptist church and will be long remembered as a lady whose life was exemplified by many noble christian virtues.

The home of Mrs. Smith was blessed with a large family of children, five of whom only have outlived her. They are Jake Smith of Pikeville; Marion Smith and Mrs. Victoria Fletcher, Simers, Ky.; Mrs. Mary Bevin, with whom she made her home and Mrs. Octavia Deskins, wife of Bill Deskins of Kimper.

All her children were at her bedside during her last hours.

Witten-Clayton.

Mr. Walter S. Clayton of Louisa, Ky. who is an employee of the C & O. railway company, a young man of high aspirations, friendly and honorable, and Miss Elizabeth Witten of Harold, Ky. were quietly married in east Pikeville at High noon Wednesday, May 24, 1922. They left on west-bound train for their honeymoon trip. They have many warm friends in Pikeville who wish them a safe and successful journey through life. Rev. W. E. Bennett officiated. Mr. Clayton is a son of Judge Clayton of Louisa.

Court News.

The rapid pace set in circuit court here the first few days of the session has not abated in the least. John Sealf was given a two years sentence on criminal charge Tuesday at the end of a hard fought trial.

Jim Smith was placed on trial for killing Emmett Reynolds on Pond creek the 20th of last February. The court being sufficiently advised issued peremptory instruction of acquittal.

Bill Kinney, who shot and killed Fleetwood Newsome his brother-in-law at Esco, some time ago, was acquitted.

It appeared in evidence that Newsome went to the home of Kinney, and that when Kinney's wife appeared in the door he threatened Kinney and fired his pistol; and that at about the same time Mr. Kinney, who was watching, fired the fatal shot.

Buildings Burn.

Fire of unknown origin, which started in the residence of Buff Meade at midnight Tuesday, destroyed the Meade building and two adjoining residences belonging to D. B. Robinson.

At the time of the fire Mr. Meade and his family were at the home of his brother, Clabe Meade whose little daughter, Rebecca, had died that day.

In Nashville.

Miss Nancyanna Pauley is in Nashville, Tenn., the guest of Elizabeth Liggett during the commencement exercises at Ward-Belmont. Miss Liggett, who was the attractive guest of Miss Pauley at different times, graduates from the college department of Ward-Belmont this year.

Visit The Breaks.

Misses Alice Record, Sarah Wilson Violet Walker and Ruth Greer left Monday accompanied by Mr. Alan Stark for a tour of the breaks. At Elkhorn City they were joined by Mr. Seaton Biggs and Charles Meade, who acted special guides.

This trip netted a grand view of a nature's most wonderful handiwork—perpendicular walls, hundreds of feet high, great fissures in mountains of stone; here and there some giant stone separated from its fellows by a narrow neck lifting its majestic brow high in the ethereal atmosphere.

The party caught one copper-head on the way but failed to run across any "copper-worm," they say.

Dr. Osborn Here.

Dr. Adam G. Osborn, formerly of Myra, has located in our city. He served in the World war and for the past two years has been specializing in surgery in Detroit and Chicago colleges. Dr. Osborn needs no introduction and a host of friends welcome his return to his native country.

Dies From Poison.

Miss Thelma Martin, who took poison at the Big Sandy Hotel here about two weeks ago died at the hospital, Huntington, W. Va., Monday and was buried Wednesday.

Scott-Casey.

Miss Dixie Scott and Mr. G. E. Casey were married in Bristol, Tenn., and went to Esco, Ky., to reside.

Miss Muriel Phillips of Robinson Creek is the attractive guest of Miss Esta May Williams.—Pike County News.

CATLETTSBURG

Boyd County Board Names Teachers.

The County Board of Education met here at the court house Saturday for the purpose of appointing teachers for the rural schools for the next term. There are 24 rural schools. Returned Here To Live.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Bond and children who have been living at Pikeville for the past year and a half have returned here to make their future home. He had a splendid offer to remain in charge of the hospital there it having been taken over by the M. E. Church, but he states that he was home sick to return here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Eldridge, who has very successfully rallied from an operation performed a week ago, will recuperate for two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gunnell of this place.

Young Man Dies.

The death of Vivian Davidson, prominent Huntington young man, which occurred Wednesday night at the Kessler-Hartfield hospital, bereaved many relatives here. He was the only child of his parents, his mother having been Miss Bessie Lockwood of Savage Branch and a niece of J. Lee Eastwood. He was the only grandchild of Mr. "Pick" Lockwood, wealthy and prominent citizen of Savage Branch. The funeral was held Friday afternoon in Huntington. Mr. Davidson was a young man of highest esteem and most splendid character.

Attend Commencement.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Preston, Miss Ora Preston and Miss Frankie Preston leave today to be present at the graduation of Miss Esther Preston at Hamilton college. The closing exercises occur on Monday.

At Shrine Meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dimick of Huntington were in Ashland on Friday and Saturday when they accompanied their young ten-year-old daughter, Alice, who took the part of an Arabian dancer in the Shrine ceremonies on Friday and Saturday. Young Miss Dimick certainly proved herself to be a most finished and graceful young person in the art of dancing.

Ferguson-Parsley Wedding.

An interesting wedding announced this week was that of Miss Mildred Ferguson and Mr. Romeo Parsley. They were married January 10 at Iron, O. Miss Ferguson is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bishop Ferguson and was a student of Ceredo-Kenova high school. Mr. Parsley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Parsley and a member of this year's graduating class of the Ceredo-Kenova high school. Mr. and Mrs. Parsley both attended Marshall college.

Play In Louisa.

Mrs. Carl Moore of this city, Mrs. H. B. Rogers of Ashland and W. J. Williams went to Louisa last week as a committee to confer with the Rebekah Lodge of that city relative to putting on the play "Under Blue Skies." A special session was called for the benefit of the visitors and it was decided to give the play on the evening of June 15. This is put on by talent from the Rebekah Lodge here and some from Ashland and it scored a great hit when given at the high school auditorium here some time ago.

Paintsville Man Arrested.

N. C. Williams of Paintsville wanted in that city on a charge of making, uttering and passing a cold check, was arrested by Ashland police. He secured a bond of $500 guaranteeing his appearance in Paintsville for trial. He was released after giving bond.

Guests Are War Brides.

Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Casebolt of Ashland, had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis of Latonia, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Terry. This charming affair was made even more attractive as the ladies of the party being French war brides, were neighbors in France.

WHAT TO WEAR

--That's About The Most Important Vacation Problem

It has been said that vacation pleasure isn't so much a matter of how and where the leisure days are spent but of the clothes one has to wear. Most certainly clothes have much to do with it, especially when most of us must cram a whole year of pent up play instincts into a few short weeks. Whether you have chosen the mountains, the lakes, seashore, countryside or plan a vacation at home, our carefully plan displays provide appropriate apparel for each sport, each function and each hour of the day and evening.

And Tub Frocks Are as Necessary as Fine Weather

When you know it will come out in the wash, there is nothing to worry about even if your clothes do get soiled—when you wear a tub frock. You can vacation as hard as you like in a jolly carefree spirit. Gingham and prints for mornings and sports and voiles, dimities, organdies and dotted swisses for times when you long to look your prettiest, make up a selection of real vacation frocks. And best of all they're not expensive.

Vacation Time Is Sweater Time

A variety of sweaters, each one as bright as a sunny day and as different as it's changing moods. Vacation days call for a variety of sport costumes and tuxedo surplice and slippers woven into chacker squares and stripes provide a sweater match to every costume.

A good looking Bathing Suit, a colorful bathing cap to match a pair of bathing shoes and a pair of good quality silk hose—you're ready for the beach.

Whatever your apparel needs you'll find them at ZENNER-BRADSHAW'S to your satisfaction.

ed Douglas to New York and will spend a few weeks the guest of her father in Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cooper and daughter, Miss Olga, are in Cincinnati, Ohio, this week where Mr. Cooper is taking treatment for his health at one of the hospitals. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vance.
